

Quincie Douglas Branch Library
1585 E 36th Street Tucson, AZ 85713
(520) 791-5214

Events and Services

Learn English FREE!

FREE English classes for adults. Call to register for English as a Second Language classes led by Literacy Volunteers of Tucson. Mondays and Thursdays from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.

Adultos, Aprendan Inglés Gratis

Un programa gratuito para adultos que deseen aprender a hablar, leer, y escribir inglés, el cual será ofrecido por La Biblioteca Quincie Douglas y Literacy Volunteers of Tucson. Estudiantes se encuentran los lunes y jueves de 9:00 -11:00 a.m. Las inscripciones estarán abiertas a adultos mayores de 18 años de edad.

Homework Help

Get help with homework. Tutors are available to help students from elementary to college levels. Monday through Thursday, 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Quincie CATs

Members of the Quincie CATs, or Children's Advisory Team develop leadership skills, make new friends from the neighborhood, learn about the role of libraries and library boards and work on projects of their choice to benefit the library and the neighborhood. For more information contact Leanne Yoder, Children's Librarian. Meetings are 1st and 3rd Tuesdays each month, 5:00-6:30 p.m.

The Exchange

Teens can join this group to work on library and community projects and participate in fun activities. For information and to sign up, contact Librarian, Jennifer Nichols. Meetings are 2nd and 4th Tuesdays each month, 5:00-6:30 p.m.

Reading With Your Eyes Closed

Can you read with your eyes closed? Children, ages 7-12 are encouraged to join the Reading With Your Eyes Closed Club to listen to fantastic talking book stories, eat after school snacks, earn computer lab tokens and have fun at craft parties. Registration is open and ongoing. Meetings are Fridays, 3:30-5:00 p.m.

Teen Financial Literacy Workshops

Call to inquire about this unique, limited opportunity for young teens to participate in a series of interactive workshops, learning about money.- How to earn, budget, save, invest, and get the best value for every buck. Workshops are provided in collaboration with Hughes Federal Credit Union and the University of Arizona. Registration starts in December. Workshops begin in February.

Puzzle Up!

Drop in alone or bring friends and family to play a wide variety of board games and puzzles. Arrive when you want, play what you choose, stay as long as you please. All ages welcome. Mondays 4:00-6:00 p.m., Wednesdays 3:00-6:00 p.m..

Storytimes

Enjoy stories, music and activities that promote development and learning at one of our three weekly storytimes.

Preschool Storytime for parents and caregivers of preschool aged children. Tuesdays, 11:00-11:45 a.m.

Family Storytime for all ages. Make reading a family affair. Tuesdays 10:00-10:45 a.m.

Hora de Cuentos En la hora de cuentos los niños tendrán la oportunidad de realizar actividades que promueven el desarrollo y el aprendizaje. Leen, cantan y hacen un arte para llevar a casa. Es gratis. Los miércoles, 11:00-11:45 a.m.

African American Heritage Celebration

Music, food, games and activities to celebration African American heritage. February 16, 1:00-5:00 p.m.